Empowered! POWER of the MIDDLE

2018 Fall Conference

This highly engaging conference is for teachers, pre-service educators, administrators, counselors, central office staff, and ANYONE who works with students ages 10-14.

Educational Exhibitors

The opportunity for participants to interact with exhibitors is always a highlight of the conference. Several exhibitors will be on hand to display products that will help empower you.

The AMLE Bookstore will be on site, as well. Credit cards and EEF cards accepted.

Social Event

Sunday, November 4th

- Live music, entertainment, & comedy from Rita Brent
- Light refreshments
- Great networking opportunity

First 100 people to register will receive a FREE conference T-Shirt!

Conference Highlights

Dr. Debi Crimmins, Opening Speaker

As a former Associate Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction for Orange County Public Schools in Orlando, Florida, Debi Crimmins has supervised and coordinated the district's secondary language arts department, blended learning models, intervention implementation, curriculum and instruction vertical mapping, state assessment analysis, school turnaround reform, and professional development services for all elementary, middle, and high schools.

Principal Baruti Kafele, Keynote Speaker

One of the most sought-after educational speakers in America, Principal Kafele is impacting America's schools! He has delivered over two thousand conference and program keynotes, professional development workshops, parenting seminars and student assemblies over his 32 years of public speaking. An expert in the area of "attitude transformation," Principal Kafele is the leading authority for providing effective classroom and school leadership strategies toward closing what he coined, the "Attitude Gap."

Mr. Marshall Ramsey, Closing Speaker

Marshall Ramsey is a two-time Pulitzer Finalist (2002 and 2006). His editorial cartoons are nationally syndicated by Creators Syndicate and have appeared in The New York Times, USA Today and The (Jackson, Miss.) Clarion-Ledger. He is the author of several successful books including three cartoon collections, two short story collections (Fried Chicken and Wine, and Chainsaws and Casseroles) and the delightful children's book Banjo's Dream. Ramsey's cartoons, photos, stories and posts are frequently shared on Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest and Instagram. He's also the host of the weekly statewide radio program, Now You're Talking with Marshall Ramsey and the television program Conversations on Mississippi Public Broadcasting.

What is MAMLE?

The Mississippi Association of Middle Level Educators is dedicated to improving the educational experiences of young adolescents by developing a network of schools, professionals and parents whose primary concern is for students ages 10-14 all across our state. We are committed to the belief that the Middle School concept is a distinct educational philosophy in which the needs of middle age students can best be met. We are an official state affiliate of the Association for Middle Level Education (AMLE).
